Trips and Electives

--Varies by grade and trip.

Lower School Students take short trips that may cost anywhere from $1 to $20.

Middle School Students occasionally take similar short trips. They also go on a fall retreat that costs approximately $100. In the spring middle school students take a trip: 6th graders to Charleston and 7th & 8th graders to various locations - Williamsburg/Jamestown, Washington, Florida, Pennsylvania, etc. These trips cost anywhere from $175 to $900.

*MS trips for Spring 2010: 6th Grade-Charleston; 7th Grade-Washington, DC; 8th Grade-Florida (Sarasota, Tampa, Ft. Myers)

High School Students, in addition to the occasional short trip, have retreat options similar to the Middle School Students. They also are offered the opportunity for major trip in the spring that costs anywhere from $1000 to $3500, depending on the trip. Past trips: Ireland, Costa Rica, Italy & Greece, and Nicaragua.

*HS trips for Spring 2010: San Francisco; Nicaragua; Windy Gap Retreat Center

Some elective classes may also require a fee. (Art classes, for example) Also, students will need to purchase, at a minimal fee, a "uniform" for dance and fitness classes.
